"LITTLE ROCKY FARM IN NEW HAMPSHIRE"

His Sole Earthly Possession Declared Senator
Gallinger. Considered Changing Public
Document After Being Ordered
Printed, Indefensible If Not Criminal

[By Associated Press.]
Washington, June 13.—Senator Gallinger today told the lobby investigation that he has no interests outside of a "little rocky farm in New Hampshire." He said he had never been approached in behalf of legislation in a manner that seemed to him improper. Referring to yesterday's Lodge sugar incident, Chairman Overman asked Senator Gallinger his opinion on changing a public document after it had been ordered printed by the Senate. Senator Gallinger replied, "I would consider it absolutely indefensible, if not criminal."

Recommended Woman Suffrage.

[By Associated Press.]
Washington, June 13.—The Woman's suffrage Senate committee today submitted a report recommending a constitutional amendment for suffrage. The report says that women voting would add to the "strength, efficiency, justice and fairness of the government." It calls the present system of male suffrage only "analogous and archaic, also odious and abhorrent when we elect that particular half of citizenship thus excluded, it is the identical one-half from which springs so much wisdom, courage, cheer hope and good counsel."

House Hooded.

[By Associated Press.]
Washington, June 13.—The House adjourned today, Friday, June 13, 1913, at 12:13.

Wilson a Near Lobbyist.

[By Associated Press.]
Washington, June 13.—Senator Gallinger, testifying before the lobby probe, declared President Wilson had come "portiously near lobbying" in connection with the tariff bill.

ANOTHER DISTURBANCE IN VENEZUELA

Plot to Assassinate President Gomez
Frustrated—Prominent Men
Were Involved

[By Associated Press.]
Willemstad, Curacao, June 13.—News reaches here of a recent plot to assassinate President Gomez of Venezuela. General Cora refused to join the conspiracy and started for the palace to tell President Gomez, and was shot at on the way, but escaped. The plot was frustrated. Many prominent men have been imprisoned.

SAN MARCOS HAS DESTRUCTIVE FIRE

Two Firemen Were Injured in Conflagration Started By a Gasoline Explosion.

[By Associated Press.]
San Marcos, Texas, June 13.—Fire did seventy-three thousand five hundred dollars damage in the Keeton-Griffin block here today. A chemical engine from Lockhart helped to extinguish the flames. Two firemen were injured. A gasoline engine explosion in the Griffin store when seventy-five persons were in it, started the fire.

CLEAN UP.....Nestor
A Drama

THE KEY.....Eclair
A two-reel, well-acted story showing a little girl locked in an old-fashioned safety vault, and the key being lost the idea is to get her out. This makes quite an interesting story.

TOMORROW FROM 2:00 P. M. TO 11:00 P. M.

HY. MAYER.....Imp
Famous American Cartoonist

FAIR EXCHANGE.....Victor
This two-reel offering is one that lingers pleasantly in the memory, because of its strong character work—the son of a rich man being played by James Kirkwood. This is a good live story with good photography throughout.

OKLAHOMA MOB SWINGS NEGRO

Stouty Denied His Guilt and Begged for Life—Crowd Answered
With Jeers.

[By Associated Press.]
Anadarko, Okla., June 13.—Bennie Simmons, a negro aged 18, accused of criminal assault and murder of Sule Church, aged 16, was taken from jail here this morning at 3 o'clock by a thousand persons and hanged to a tree. His body was saturated with oil and riddled with bullets. Miss Church was returning home on horseback when attacked and her body was found two hours afterwards. A plain trail led to the negro, but he denied the crime and begged for his life this morning. The crowd answered him with jeers.

AMERICAN SHIP LINES IN AGREEMENT

[By Associated Press.]
Washington, June 13.—Chairman Alexander of the House ship trust investigation committee, in making public the first three volumes of the committee's findings, said today that competition had been practically eliminated between American coastwise lines. He said all the established lines from American ports are in an "agreement."
